Gott Gott und Mensch Mensch sein lassen. Die Rede vom Geheimnis in den Theologien von Karl Rahner und Dietrich Bonhoeffer

Supervisor: Kurt Appel

Abstract (English)

The thesis explores the notion of mystery within the theologies of revelation of Karl Rahner and Dietrich Bonhoeffer. The main proposition is that Rahner as well as Bonhoeffer in their use of the term mystery in discussion on and continuation of their own confessional backgrounds are capable of putting forward radical world-related theologies.
