Nähe und Entzug Gottes in der Lichtung des Seyns. JHWHS Vorübergang (Ex 32-34) und der Gott des unendlichen Verhältnisses in Heideggers Wort vom Geviert

Abstract (English)

Under the heading "Nearness an Hiddeness of God in the Clearing of Be-ing" the present work would like to show analogies between a biblical thinking and Heidegger's Thinking of Be-ing (Seyn). Both come together in the term: Openness. God's revelation inserts itself into the openness of Be-ing. This space of Openness, on the other hand, is only unclosed by God's mercyful self-restriction and withdrawal.
